

Working From Home

All licenses run on a sign in named user basis, which means they are available to use at home or on other machines (subject to T&Cs) by signing into your online Adobe account portal and downloading/installing from there.

This page here is a great resource from Adobe, detailing any updates regarding this situation. They have also put out helpful tips and guides for working remotely, and navigating through it.